Executive*

March 10, 2008 (Marlow, UK) – Thomas International today announced that it will again be sponsoring the Recruiter Awards for Excellence for the sixth consecutive year.

The awards are a leading benchmark for exceptional business and individual performance, rewarding examples of best practice and innovation within the recruitment sector. The 2008 Awards will take place on Monday 28th April 2008 at London’s Grosvenor House Hotel.

This year marks a new era for the awards, with a set of new categories that put particular emphasis on outstanding service standards in client care and candidate care, as well as categories that have been redefined to better represent recruitment industry sectors. The awards are judged by an expert panel of 21 professionals who between them represent a massive depth and breadth of knowledge and expertise across the recruitment industry, human resources resourcing, corporate finance, government policy and HR.
